Supporting LGBTQ People in Religious and Spiritual Settings Part II: Going Deeper

In this second 5-part series, we Go Deeper, exploring how we can best support LGBTQ people of various races and cultures, Trans people, LGBTQ youth, same-sex couples and their children, and LGBTQ seniors. See schedule below.

Who are these mini-courses for?

- Anyone – LGBTQ or ally – who finds themselves leading a small or large group that includes LGBTQ people, in a religious or spiritual setting (clergy, small group leader, board member, or other leadership role).
- Mental Health professionals who want a deeper understanding of the religious and spiritual aspects for LGBTQ people. Social Work CEUs available.

What you can expect: Becoming a part of a learning community with expert presentations and an opportunity to share your own experience and wisdom.

Register for 1 or more sessions or all 5. All sessions are on Tuesdays, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at Intersections International, 145 W 28th Street, 11th Floor, NYC

Hosted by Lee Heeter, LMSW, M.Div. and Blanton-Peale therapist
