Blanton-Peale Graduate Institute Psychoanalytic Training Program

Instructions/Procedures for Completing the Application for Admission

Entrance requirements:

- Graduation from an accredited academic institution with a master's degree or higher. (Applicants with master's degrees from outside the US should speak with the Director of Psychoanalytic Training for foreign degree equivalency evaluation instructions.)
- Demonstration of appropriate personal and professional background to undertake comprehensive and intensive training in psychoanalysis.
- Applicants whose first language is not English must demonstrate the ability to work in English in the nuanced, complex setting of psychoanalytic sessions. Scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) exam or equivalent may be requested.

Applications Procedures: Please include the following materials with your application:

(Please send or email to Gaby Asanza, Administrative Assistant for the Psychoanalytic Training, Blanton-Peale Institute, 7 West 30th Street, 9th and 10th floors, New York, NY 10001, patp@blantonpeale.org .

1. Personal Statement

Provide a personal statement that will provide the Admissions Committee with a sense of who you are and what has brought you to psychoanalytic training. (Suggested length of 500 to 1000 words).

The following items should be included in your personal statement:

- What is your interest in psychoanalytic training?
- What part(s) of your background have contributed to your decision to apply to the Blanton-Peale Psychoanalytic Training Program?
- What prior experience have you had with psychotherapy and psychoanalysis?
- What other information can you provide to support your application for psychoanalytic training?

2. The completed application form below.

3. Official transcripts sent directly from graduate programs.

4. A non-refundable application fee of $75. Please make your check payable to Blanton-Peale Institute.

5. A curriculum vitae or resume.

6. Two letters of recommendation sent directly from persons who are familiar enough with you to be able to provide us with meaningful information about your preparation and appropriateness for psychoanalytic training at Blanton-Peale.

7. A brief statement indicating specific occupational and financial resources that will support you during your psychoanalytic training at Blanton-Peale.

Once all of your materials have been received and reviewed by the Admissions Committee and you are determined to be qualified for admission to training, you will be scheduled for an interview with the Director of Training or the Assistant Director of Training. Upon completion of the interview, the Admissions Committee will notify you whether you have been accepted. Once you have been admitted into the program, there will be an Enrollment Deposit of $525 to secure your spot in the upcoming class. This deposit will be applied towards your tuition and fees.
